ENDOWMENT STATEMENT

I/We understand that this gift is given to an endowment at Heifer International Foundation which means it will not be spent immediately, but will be invested to provide support to Heifer International in perpetuity. I/We understand that 5.5% of the market value of the endowment will be made available to Heifer International annually for the endowment’s intended use. The balance of the endowment remains invested, continuing to grow, so that funds are available year after year.

I/We understand that if the Board of Trustees of Heifer International Foundation shall at any time determine that the uses of the endowment are no longer appropriate and in accord with my/our desires and the objectives and principles of Heifer International Foundation, then Heifer International Foundation may, in the exercise of discretion, direct the application of the same in whole or in part to meet other appropriate projects as close as possible to the original intent and within the general charitable purposes of Heifer International Foundation.
